The Streamlined Gyp

By ETHEL GILLET WHITEHORN

The peoples' hard-earned cash is like a fallen leaf, blown hither and yon by a gusty wind. Now you see it—now you don't. Instead of pay envelopes pausing for station identification in the hands of those who have earned them, they fly away into the willing hands of the streamlined jippers. Is it any wonder that our people are madder than mad hornets?

For example, the high cost of most foods calls for a determined objective on the part of the American people. That objective is to make an analysis of all grocery and meat markets in all cities and towns, and then publish the names of all streamlined jippers who have no respect for the weekly pay envelope. A second objective, which is just as important, is that all housewives of limited and unlimited incomes stand shoulder to shoulder against the gougers who are growing fat at their expense. When they will line up before meat counters, vegetable and fruit displays, and grocery shelves, and after taking one good look at the exorbitant prices, will shrug their shoulders and walk out—the situation will change.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, the temper of the American housewife is the grocer's and butcher's thermometer. So long as she permits herself to be gouged—just so long will the gouger gouge. But when the housewife lets it be known that she will place her family on a diet of hardtack before she will be taken for a ring-tailed monkey, the mood of the gouger changes. He knows he has played the last card in the deck and in the future he will divide the aces with his customers.

During the past 30 days, I have made it a business to compare prices in numerous markets—not chain—between Palm Springs and Los Angeles, and from Los Angeles to San Francisco.

Eleven cents was the price of a solid head of lettuce in most markets. Some grocers are asking and getting 17 cents. When I sought an explanation from one of the stream-lined jippers, he said: "Well, you see, little lady, we are noted for our artistic vegetables. We always trim our lettuce."

"So I observe," said I. "But why try to trim me, too?"
At a market in Monrovia, I purchased 8 beautiful apples—as large as grapefruits for 40 cents. In a store, further east, three medium sized apples were offered to me for 22 cents.

THE PAY-OFF was canned soup and mayonnaise. In practically all markets, the soups are 12 or 14 cents a can. What right does any grocer have to charge the housewife 18 cents for the same brand? I purchased, in Redlands, an 8-ounce jar of high quality mayonnaise for 27 cents. In another town the price of a 14-ounce jar of second quality mayonnaise is 59 cents.

Last week I food-shopped in San Bernardino. My family is still raving over the fine quality of the four T-bone steaks I purchased in a market there. Those steaks were neither as thin as a match nor as thick as an adobe wall, but they more than satisfied my family. The cost, en masse, was exactly $1.66. Why don't other markets match that price?

The pay envelope a housewife receives from her husband shouldn't be a fallen leaf tossed about by a gusty wind. A percentage of its contents can be saved for rainy days when our housewives will take a stand against the stream-lined jip.

Letters to the EditorMORE ABOUT VILLAGE TIME

Editor, The Desert Sun: There was a time when the sweet Palm Springs sun shone with democratic bounty on rich and poor alike. There was a mellow generous warmth in the winter air that seemed to say: savor me, enjoy me, respond to me—there is no price tag on me!

That time is gone. Bleak, dark "winter time," misnamed "sun time," has robbed this treasure of those whose means do not permit them to arise as the first happy rays of sun come in through the window. Democracy has been pushed out and privilege put in its place. Now the harsh voice of the alarm clock arouses the man of humble means, and in the dark chilly gloom he dresses, eats and goes to work. When the sun sinks behind the mountain and the swift winter night spreads over the desert, he comes home, truly a prisoner of sunless "winter time." For him there is no more desert sun. He cannot "afford" it. The term "sun-time" is an irony, a rather bitter irony.

In the same way, the sun has been taken away from the child who goes to school. Alas, for a society that puts the needs of children after its own dubious comforts have been served!

Sun-time is selfish-time; it is ostentatious-time; it is show-off-time; the desire to be different, to be noticed, to be exceptional, even if it means being out of step with the rest of the country and injurious to the community as a whole is not particularly praiseworthy.

Yours truly,

CORNELIA JESSEY

THE MILLIPED

The milliped is probably more often confused with the centipede than with any other creature, since both have so many walking-legs. However, you can readily distinguish the milliped in several ways. For one thing, it apparently possesses two pairs of legs to each body segment, whereas the centipede has only one. Then, the body of the milliped is almost cylindrical in shape, much like a pencil; the centipede is flattish and wide in comparison. The legs of the milliped are quite small, but those of the centipede are fairly large and noticeable. The antennae of the centipede are long and prominent, easily seen, whereas those of the milliped are small and inconspicuous.

THE NAME milliped has been derived from the Latin and means "thousand legged." As with the word centipede (hundred-legged), this is a slight exaggeration, for no milliped has that many legs, or even half the number. Our common desert variety has about 80. The word milliped is often spelled with an "e" instead of the second "i". Millepede, no doubt to better conform with the name centipede. However, the "i" spelling and without a final "e," as used in this article, seems to have preference, at least by Dr. Chamberlain of Salt Lake, acknowledged authority on millipeds.

Like the centipede, the milliped belongs to that great group of invertebrate animals called the arthropods. At one time it was placed in the same sub-group as the centipede, but recent research has proved that the two creatures are only distantly related, in spite of the general similarity in body-form. Consequently, the milliped is now included in the group Diplopoda (Greek for "double-footed," in reference to the two pairs of legs per body segment), although a few biologists prefer the group name Chilognatha. That there is yet a lot to be found out about these curious animals is evident from such disagreement as to their correct classification.

At first glance, it is difficult for the casual observer to tell which end is which in the milliped. However, the detention of the tiny pair of 7-segmented antennae makes the anterior end apparent. The creature wanders about, they continually tap the ground ahead of it, like a blind-man's cane. The eyes, which are present in our local species but totally absent in others, are merely clusters of eye-spots on either side of the head, above the base of the sensory antennae. Like those of the centipede and scorpion, they can detect only quick movement and light from dark; no milliped can distinguish detail or color.

THE HEAD also bears two pairs of jaws. Neither of these pairs are connected to poison-gland, as they are in the centipede. In fact, the milliped has no venom-glands whatsoever, and thus is absolutely harmless. The first pair of its jaws are adapted for cutting, and the second, which are flattened and form a sort of lower lip, are used in chewing. The milliped needs no complicated piercing or crushing weapons, since it feeds only upon vegetable matter, and not upon animal prey.

As in the centipede, the body is composed of articulated segments, one edge of each overlapping the next like chain-armor. Each one of these segments, also called somites, is made up of a large upper plate, a much smaller belly plate, and two lateral or pleural plates, one on each side. There is but one pair of legs attached to each somite. However, the big difference between this arrangement and that in the centipede is that the upper back plate is greatly enlarged both laterally and backwards, so that it actually covers two segments instead of one, and projects far over each side. Thus it appears that there are two pairs of walking legs to each somite, while there really is only one.

Because of the lateral enlargement of the top plates, the side ones are quite small, and the basal ones reduced almost to scales. In fact, these basal plates are so small that the legs which are attached to them are crowded practically next to each other. This increase in size of the back plates gives the milliped its rounded appearance.

The last body segment has no legs, but does bear a pair of movable anal valves. Breathing by the milliped is accomplished by a series of external openings or spiracles, really breathing pores, which open along the side, one pair to each segment, just above the base of the leg. In some species these pores are very prominent, giving the appearance of a row of large dots on each side of the body. In our local millipeds, these spiracles are obscure and barely discernable.

Drinkwater Named W.A.L. President, in Office January 1

Bill Ortwin of the Western Airlines today announced the election of a new president for the W.A.L. at a meeting of the board of directors of the company in Los Angeles.

Terrell C. Drinkwater has been named president and chief executive officer and will take over his new duties on January 1.

He succeeds William A. Coulter, present president, who expressed a desire to step down from the top position in the company and tendered his resignation, effective Dec. 31. Mr. Coulter will remain a member of the board of directors.

The new Western Air Lines president has been associated with commercial aviation for many years.

Christmas Cheer For Hospitalized Veterans Planned

Again this year Palm Springs residents will be afforded the opportunity to bring Christmas cheer to war heroes confined to government hospitals, it was disclosed today as Commander G.K. Sanborn of the American Legion post announced plans for the "Gifts for the Yanks Who Gave" gift campaign.

Sanborn issued a call for contributions of gifts to be given to men and women under treatment for war injuries at the Corona Naval hospital.

GIFTS may be left at the office of the chamber of commerce, 310 North Palm Canyon drive, but very little time remains for the donations since the packages must be delivered by the Legion to the county-wide clearing center in Riverside by December 20.

Persons not wishing to purchase gifts may contribute money. Checks should be made payable to the "Legion County Christmas Fund." Donations of money will be used for the purchase of additional gifts to be distributed to the war heroes and heroines in the government hospitals of the county.

"Let us all remember that this probably will be even a drearier Christmas than that of last year for our war heroes as they have spent another whole year away from their families and loved ones seeking to regain their health so they may take their places in their home communities," Commander Sanborn stated today.

Noted Illustrator Leaves for East

Albert Dorne, famed Saturday Evening Post illustrator, who during a two month's stay at the Colonial House endeared himself to so many Villagers, left suddenly Wednesday for his home city of New York on urgent business. Originally he and his wife who accompanied him, had planned to stay at that swanky hotel until February 2.

A farewell party was held in the dining room of the Colonial House the night before Dorne departed. Present for the occasion was Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cordrey. Cordrey, the former, who is equally as famous as an illustrator, has been a close friend of Dorne's for fifteen years. Also present was Edward Wikelis, art editor for Cosmopolitan magazine; Bill Davis, manager of the hotel and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kahn of New York City. He is the owner of a large chain of restaurants in New York City.

Saint Sylvester's Feast Day Marks End of Year

The feast of St. Sylvester, who was Pope from 314 A. D. until his death in 335, is observed by the Roman and Anglican churches on December 31.

In Germany and Belgium the morning of St. Sylvester's Day is commemorated religiously, while the afternoon and evening are devoted to various kinds of horseplay in anticipation of the coming New Year.

The great big beautiful car drew up to the curb near where the cute little working girl was waiting for a bus, and a gentleman stuck his neck out and said: "Hello, I'm driving west."

"How wonderful," said the girl, "bring me back an orange."

Improvement of Horse Trails in Desert Area Begun

Under the direction of City Manager W. E. Alworth, a special committee of the Palm Springs Horsemen's association this week began a vigorous attack upon the critical problem of maintaining existing horse trails across Palm Springs and the extension of new ones connecting with trails leading into the nearby mountains.

With many old time trails which have been used for years by riders already cut off by new subdivisions, and other routes jeopardized by contemplated land developments, the committee is mapping a plan to provide permanent outlets for riders originating within the city limits, Alworth, an ardent horseman, said following the meeting.

AS A STARTING POINT the committee will outline on a government map the existing trails and seek to provide the permanent connections with the trails leading into the mountains. Already the once popular trails that cut across the face of the mountain immediately west of the Village are virtually closed to riders due to the danger to horses crossing busy streets, and the Horsemen's Association is determined that this shall not happen to the trails into the mountain areas south and southeasterly of the Village, the chairman said.

Attending the committee meeting, held in the city council chambers, were besides Alworth, Frank Bennett, president of the Desert Riders; City Councilman Culver Nichols, and Raymond Cree, president and Carl Lykken, treasurer of the Horsemen's Association. Another meeting of the committee will be called in the near future.

Omlin Named as License Chief

Joe Omlin, long time resident of Palm Springs and former fire chief at Torney General hospital, is on the job today as license inspector for Palm Springs. His appointment was announced Wednesday by City Manager William E. Alworth.

The city manager disclosed that many itinerant merchants are drifting into the Village and doing business with a city license. It will be Omlin's duty to check on these and on other license affairs to see that the city laws are not being violated.

Harvest Ball At Air Base Big Success

Large Crowd Out
For Chamber of Commerce Benefit

Paid employees of the chamber of commerce won't have to worry about their pay checks for a little while now.

The reason lies in the huge success of the costume Harvest ball which was held Tuesday night in the officer's club at the Army Air Field at which event approximately 400 persons were present. The chamber will benefit to the tune of nearly $2,000, it is unofficially reported.

GREAT DEAL of the success can be layed at the door of Kenneth Kirk, chairman, and members of his committee.

Wal Spalding, one of the hard working members of the committee drew a lot of applause when the presents he went out and collected by himself, were displayed. More than $500 in gifts were given away at the ball.

George Strebe who was in charge of entertainment had a continuous stream of musicians and performers from the various night spots in town entertaining the crowd.

RAY MORTON and his society dance orchestra from the Colonial House, Felix and Leo, Doll House; Connie Barleau, songster from The Dunes; Sue Stanley of the Chi-Chi; Bob Laine, pianist, Mr. Dees; Bob Henderson's orchestra, of the Palm House; Benny Burns, of the Lido and Roy Randolph's dancers featured the entertainment.

Kirk publicly thanked all those who had a hand in making the affair such a success. Among them he wished to thank were Mary Jane Hicks and Josephine Sprague, in charge of tickets; Delia Ransom for decorations; Wal Spalding for gathering the gifts; Cecil Isenagle for his work on the grounds and building committee; George Strebe for entertainment; Leo Baker and Johnny DeVine who were in charge of refreshments and Jack Boyer and Phil Delano for the food.

When the Infant Jesus

Selected His Playmate

According to various legends, the Holy Family travels about on Christmas Eve. Long ago—in England—sick babies were carried to the threshold at midnight. If the child recovered, it had been healed by the passing Christ; if the baby died, the Holy Child had chosen the infant to be His playmate in heaven.

Nola Birthplace Of Church Bells

The use of church bells is said to have been inaugurated during the fifth century by Bishop Palinius of Nola, in Campania.

Although the derivation is doubted by some authorities, it appears that the Latin word for bell—campanula—was derived from the bishop's town, Nola, and district, Campania.

MORE ABOUT . . .

Noted Villager . . .

Scott Thompson, Maurice Wakle, and Paul Graves.

AS THE NEWS of Isenagle's death spread around the Village the shock of his sudden passing began to be felt by the many hundreds of his friends. He was well known in the community as a man who would go all out in any project or drive which would benefit the city and its people.

He was active in Boy Scout work as a district commissioner in this area. A charter member of the Palm Springs Rotary club, he was chairman of the scouting committee for that organization. He was also the Rotary treasurer this year and a member of the board of directors.

THERE WASN'T a welfare campaign of any nature in which those in charge of the drive did not make it a point to seek out the assistance of Cecil Isenagle who willingly gave of his time to such a degree (and this is a known fact) that his own work as manager for Tanner's Motor Service here and as a Packard dealer, had to be conducted late at night.

From all sides came the statement that Palm Springs has truly lost one of its best citizens. All seemed to choose the same words in speaking of him and they were: "Palm Springs has lost one of its finest citizens. He was the outstanding civic worker in the community."

SINGLE-HANDEDLY it is said, he raised $12,000 last year for the Wars Memorial Building fund for the Owen Coffman Post of the American Legion of which he was a member and also on the executive committee.

He worked untiringly in behalf of the Community Chest and was the secretary of that organization at the time of his death.

Among the many organizations in which he held office was that of vice president of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce; one of the organizers of the Palm Springs Horseman's association; member of the Fish and Game Association of Palm Springs. In addition to his job as treasurer of the Rotary Club he was also chairman of the clarifications committee. He expended much effort in behalf of the Girl Scout council of this community. Another organization to which he belonged was the Desert Circus association as a member of the executive committee. He worked for the creation of the Palm Springs Community Hospital association and was, as a result, one of its directors.

IN THE EFFORT to raise money for the Chamber of Commerce to operate on, he had an important part in staging the successful Costume Harvest Ball which was held last Tuesday at the officer's club at the Army Air Base. He neglected his own work and business to devote five days of his time to the ball, assigning his own employees and a truck to assist in preparing the officer's club.

He was the oldest of two sons born to his family. Darrell, his brother, came down to Palm Springs from his home in Pasadena to help arrange for the funeral and to comfort the grieving widow. But he was not in the Village very long until many friends of Cecil offered their assistance. E. Bailey, close friend of the Isenagles was assisting the brother and Mrs. Isenagle.

Isenagle served in the first World War. He and his brother were members of a motorized supply train attached to the famous 35th Division. Both saw plenty of action in that first great conflict.

Mr. Suburb kissed his wife a fond farewell as he was about to catch his morning bus. But, for the first time in five years, he missed it. Thinking to surprise his spouse, he tiptoed into the kitchen, and implanted a tender kiss on the back of her neck as she was washing the dishes. "Good morning," she said, "I'll have two bottles of milk and a pint of cream." —Voo Doo.

"Why are you washing your spoon in your finger bowl?" "So I won't get egg all over my pocket."

Hodening Horse Of British Isles

Strange miracle plays were always intrinsic parts of the holiday season in the British Isles and in many such traditional performances, one of the characters rode a grotesque hobby horse. Gradually, the horse assumed the characteristics of a star performer and in time, stepping out of the play altogether, began going from house to house—expecting hospitality, after frightening families half out of their wits.

Of course, the Hodening Horse was no ordinary horse: two boys, covered with sheets and a horse blanket, usually supplied his vitality; his wooden head was hideously carved with gouged eyes, hobnail teeth, etc. The boys manipulated strings to make the teeth clank, etc., and sometimes placed a lighted candle in the hollow of the head to make the mouth seem to belch forth flames.

In Wales, it was customary for the Hodening Horse to recite long extemporaneous verses: if the Horse outwitted his host, he was invited in for cakes and cider. A less witty procedure was followed in some rural communities and along lonely roads: wealthy citizens and travelers were attacked by unknown Hodening Horses who demanded "fines" from their victims.

Community Chest Drive To Get Under Way in Village January 18; Advance Gift Campaign Will Start Immediately

If indomitable spirit and fighting words mean anything the combined Community Chest and Community Hospital Association drive for funds is going to be a success.

Plans for the campaign were laid at the Fiesta House on the Desert Inn grounds with Kenneth Kirk in charge of the drive. Present were members of nearly every civic, service and charitable organization in the Village.

THE DRIVE will start Saturday, January 18, 1947, but a special gift drive is to start immediately, according to Kirk. Frank Cutler, in charge of this phase of the drive, pointed out that those contributing before the end of this year will be able to show that donation on their income tax report.

The quota in the drive has been set at $34,550.78. This money will be distributed in the following manner: Welfare and Friendly Aid Division of the Palm Springs Woman's Club, $7350; Girl Scouts, $1,625; Boy Scouts, $2,222.34; Desert Museum, $3,825; U. S. O. $1500; Boy's Club, $753.15; Community Hospital, $17,275.39.

PLANS for the drive include speakers who will visit all civic meetings. The Boy and Girl Scouts will be asked to assist in the drive. Students at both the grammar and high schools will also assist.

Kirk has given his campaign committee military titles and Frank Cutler has been dubbed the Major General. Those given the title of colonel are: Ernest Alschuler, Carl Phillips, Carl Lykken, Art Bailey, Theresa Fields, Bill Colburn, Bill Dean and William D. Malouf. Others are to be added to this working committee within the next few days and Kirk announced that another woman director of the Community Hospital will be added.

S. P. Adds New Train for L. A.

Villagers, travelling to Los Angeles by train, now have added accommodations, according to James G. Shea, city passenger agent for the Southern Pacific. He was informed yesterday that the Imperial Limited, a new Los Angeles-Chicago train recently placed in operation by the S. P., would stop at the Palm Springs station to pick up passengers for Los Angeles.

The Imperial Limited, west-bound, is due at the local station at 11:08 a. m. and arrives in Los Angeles at the Union Depot at 2 p. m.

The train will be available for Villagers starting tomorrow.

Bank of America To Raise Savings Accounts Interest

Reversing the national downward trend of the past several years, interest payments on savings accounts are to be increased 25 per cent for the first six months of 1947 on most deposits in the world's largest bank, according to authorization of the board of directors of Bank of America, announced by L. M. Giannini, president. Word of the decision was received by Fred Ingram, manager of the Palm Springs branch today.

The generally prevailing interest rate of one per cent on savings account balances up to $10,000 will be increased to 1 1/4 per cent.

BENEFITS of this rate change will be reflected throughout California. Savings accounts in Bank of America number about 2,300,000, approximately 96 per cent of which are in the "small saver" group of less than $5000. The overall average of all savings accounts is $950.

Commenting on this significant move, President Giannini said: "This action is another step by our board toward giving recognition to all groups responsible for the outstanding progress of our bank. Last June, staff members were recognized by a substantial adjustment in basic salaries, followed in July by an increase in dividends to stockholders; now recognition is being given to savings depositors. It is hoped that the rate can be progressively increased as conditions warrant. The board's action is adequately justified by the operating results of the bank as the forthcoming year-end report of condition will disclose."

INTEREST on that portion of a savings account which exceeds $10,000, paid heretofore at the rate of one per cent on accounts on the books on September 2, 1942, will be applied to all accounts on the books on December 31, 1946. Such excess funds, to receive the interest, must be continuously on deposit for full semiannual periods. New savings deposit accounts for amounts in excess of $10,000 will be accepted at interest only with prior executive approval as has been the custom in recent years.

Fortune Teller Kidnapped, Beaten Robbed by 2 Men

John Hastie, 63, better known to Villagers as the man who sits under "that tree on Baristo Road" telling fortunes, reported to police that he was brutally beaten about the head with the butt end of an automatic pistol until unconscious and then robbed by two men who had forced him into their automobile as he was walking home.

HASTIE, who turned up at the police station around 2 a. m. Wednesday morning, showing evidences of the beating that was administered—a blackened eye and lacerations of the scalp—said that he had been dropped off in front of the Bathhouse on Indian Avenue by friends at 12 midnight after attending the Harvest Ball at the Army Air Field. As he started walking homeward, his assailants drove up in an automobile, forced him into their automobile by threat of a gun, and drove him out somewhere near Radio Station KCMJ.

HASTIE SAID it was about this time the automobile was accidentally driven into deep sand and could not be moved. He was ordered out of the automobile to lend a hand and when he refused, the beating started.

When Hastie recovered consciousness, he said a new wallet with five dollars in it was missing. He reported that he staggered to the home of Mrs. Margaret Fleming, 481 San Carlos and asked her to call the police around 2 a. m.

Customer: "How much is this hat?"

Clerk: "Fifteen dollars."

Customer: "But where are the holes?"

Clerk: "What holes?"

Customer: "The holes for the ears of the jackass who would pay fifteen dollars for this hat."

Legion Auxiliary To Initiate New Members Wed.

Wednesday evening, December 18, is the date scheduled for the initiation of new members recently enrolled in Owen Coffman Unit, American Legion Auxiliary. The ceremony will be held at the Palm Springs Woman's Clubhouse at 8 o'clock. Village time, will be conducted by Mrs. Harold Lienau, Mrs. C. V. Knapp, Mrs. Jay Morrison, Mrs. George Kreimer, Mrs. Allen Hall, Mrs. Rolie Cornell, Mrs. Fred Strombom, and Mrs. Ray Mullen, officers of the unit.

Special guests will be Mrs. Edward Peterson, Riverside, 21st District President of the Auxiliary; Mrs. Arthur Hanell, Culver City, State Americanism chairman; Mrs. Frank Stump, Los Angeles, state community service chairman; Mrs. Edna Chamberlin, a past department president of Pennsylvania, now a resident of Desert Hot Springs, and the following unit presidents accompanied by some of their members: Mrs. Martha Herfurth, Banning; Mrs. Roberta Gagnon, Beaumont; Mrs. Dorothy Latta, Indio, and Mrs. Neva Randall, Thermal.

GOLD STAR MOTHERS to be honored during the evening are: Mrs. Frona Gill, Mrs. Mabel Bryant, Mrs. Allen R. Hall, Mrs. Helen Coffman, Mrs. Norval W. Kelley, Mrs. Melvin Workman, Mrs. Edna D. McKeeney, and Mrs. Harold Lienau.

A most enjoyable program of music is being arranged by Mrs. Holly Lash Visel, chairman. Alexander Hammon, director of music at the Palm Springs High School, will present his Boys' Glee Club and Girls' Trio, accompanied at the piano by Wynne Hammond. This will be the first public appearance of the two singing groups.

At the conclusion of the program refreshments will be served by the hospitality committee, Mrs. A. H. Renier, chairman, Mrs. Marvin Sale, Mrs. G. K. Sanborn, Mrs. Arthur Burkland, Mrs. Homer Jenkins, Mrs. Joe Omlin, Mrs. Herbert Lee, and Mrs. Fay Bragg. Christmas decorations will add a festive touch.

NEW MEMBERS to be greeted informally at this time are: Mrs. Helen Coffman, Mrs. Tom Kieley, Mrs. Robert Peterson, Mrs. William Lux, Mrs. C. C. Neel, Mrs. Anita Grove, Mrs. Robert Ellsworth, Mrs. Noble Curtis, Mrs.

Romance, Begun In Wrath, Brings Pair to Village

A young man, who met his bride-to-be when in high dudgeon, took her with him to the high heavens in a Western Air Lines plane on a golden honeymoon flight to Palm Springs, after they said their vows in Hollywood yesterday on the ABC network's "Bride and Groom" radio program.

John Bogers, 24, returned to his home at Wheeling, West Virginia, after receiving his discharge from the Marine Corps. One day he went into a Wheeling store to buy a new suit. A mistake was made in the credit department, so in great anger, he stormed upstairs to insist upon correction.

After their arrival in Palm Springs on the Western Airliner, the newlyweds will spend a week's honeymoon at the Desert Retreat, managed by Harold Hirsch.

MISS STRADER is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Strader of Wheeling. Her father is a building contractor. Mr. Bogers is the son of Mrs. Irene Bogers, also of Wheeling. He is a machinist.

Following their week's honeymoon in Palm Springs, the newlywed couple will fly back to Los Angeles via Western Air Lines, and then return to establish their new home in Wheeling.

Chilly Affair

Warm Event for
All But Chairman

Everybody came away from the Harvest Ball at the Army Air Base with a warm glow created by the good time they had but Kenneth Kirk, who spark-plugged the affair was chilled all the way home.

His chill, caused by the cold night air, was due to the lack of an overcoat which some guest at the ball had taken by mistake leaving a lady's coat in its place, similar in color and of camel's hair material.

All Kirk would like is to reverse the exchange and mistaken or otherwise, no questions will be asked if it is returned.

"Just want my coat back," explained Kirk, "and the personal property contained in its pockets."

Customer: "I wanna buy a lawnmower."
Clerk: "Sorry, sir, but we haven't any lawnmowers."
Customer: "Well, this is a FINE drug store."—Urchin.

Doing the Village

with
Moya Henderson

The air base took on a semblance of its old business Tuesday evening when the Chamber of Commerce held its benefit dinner dance at the Officers Club. Whenever there is money to be raised for some worthy cause Villagers really go all the way to put the drive over. But aside from philanthropical reasons, the turnout is tremendous at any party given by the Chamber of Commerce because it's bound to be one of the best parties of the year. This one was no exception.

Western costumes predominated although Hortense Murray was decked out as a fortune teller, read quite a few palms too, in gay gypsy colors and a black wig. Dick Charleston made a wonderful bum, but the most color was supplied by the gals selling chances on prizes.

THEIR JAUNTY straw hats were trimmed for Christmas in red cellophane and silver bells and miniature Christmas trees growing gaily on the crown. Mary Jane Hicks was the clever designer and kept herself busy all evening checking in tickets. Saw many faces that have been missing for awhile.

Johnny and Connie Devine made their appearance. Connie says she's been back from the east for almost two months but so busy around the house she hasn't trotted around much. Saw Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Williams at the shindig. Mrs. Williams is back in the Village again after spending the summer with her parents in Sweden. Making their first public appearance since the arrival of new additions to the family were Margaret Theriau and Eleanor Shea and both were having a wonderful time.

Cecil Isenagle, Mrs. Enid Armstrong, Mrs. Lena Basilone, Mrs. James J. Hall, Mrs. Charles S. Henderson, Mrs. Joe Henderson, Mrs. Phil Delano, Mrs. Newton Hotchkiss, Mrs. Edith L. Stoddard, Mrs. Howard Perdue, Mrs. Royala L. Ross, Mrs. John M. Connell, Mrs. Ruth Prothro, Mrs. Carol Prothro, Mrs. Harry Corcoran, Mrs. Lawrence Sitter, Mrs. Barney Bourne, Mrs. Eleanor Jonas, Mrs. Ralph H. Lambe, Mrs. James Harriman, and Miss Rhodah M. Garner.

Friends and Legionnaires are cordially invited for the occasion.

And speaking of new arrivals it's a girl for the Carl Watkins, just what was ordered. Frances and the baby are doing fine at the Indio Hospital. From Los Angeles we hear that it's a boy for the Paul Rogers. Mrs. Rogers is the former Jean Johnston who was a school marm down here for many a season. The young man arrived on the 6th of December and is called William Wesley. The Ray Ockers received the baby boy they'd planned on Wednesday. Mrs. Ocker was Shirley Fern, daughter of the Homer Ferns of this city.

MANY ORGANIZATIONS in town have found that we now have access to a dance band which is welcome news. This group of teenagers from the high school is led by their instructor, Gus Patzner, who is doing such a wonderful job with instrumental music in our schools. He's not the only teacher who keeps busy in his after hours as Alex Hammond not only fills singing engagements but whips down to the family ranch at Mecca over the week-end to help with the date industry. And Chris Collins has purchased a ranch north of Beaumont and supplies his faculty friends with fresh vegetables in season. This is a versatile crew, eh what!

Mrs. Lauritz Hansen, who helped to entertain the boys from the naval hospital last Sunday and served them lunch at her house, tells a story on the boys which we thought funny. Seems that the group selected to come down were all fellows with homes east of Chicago. The ladies of the Red Cross thought that they would be particularly interested in a western show so they told them they were to be guests of the Los Compadres at their gymkhana. The boys got the idea that the Los Compadres was a Spanish group from south of the border who were going to dance the gymkhana for them. They were both surprised and pleased to find the group went in for more rugged exercise and the ladies from Riverside had a hard time getting the boys to go home.

Early Days in Village Recounted By George Roberson in Talk Before Rotary Club; Urges Flood Control

"People make the town and the town itself reflects the personality of the people," so declared George Roberson, co-manager of the Desert Inn, addressing the members of the Palm Springs Rotary club Wednesday noon.

Roberson who came here with his mother as a boy of 18, recalled vividly for the Rotarians and their friends, many happy anecdotes of early Palm Springs and at the same time warned that floods with which the early Villagers fought, will return again unless steps are taken to control wild rushing waters from the mountain sides to the west.

THE SPEAKER expertly mixed his delivery of early history of Palm Springs with great humor causing his listeners to roar with laughter but at the same time, the undercurrent of his address called for unity of endeavor for the civic improvement of the town.

He recalled that it took five hours to make the trip by automobile from Palm Springs to Banning over a rutted road and if the driver came up behind a prospector in a wagon pulled by burros, the time would be considerably longer.

"I HAD LEARNED through experience," remembered Roberson "never to blow my horn impatiently for these prospectors to pull over. However one day I did and the burro driver reached down behind him and placed a 30-30 rifle beside him on the seat with the muzzle pointed in my direction."

Roberson said, in retrospect, that every thing that occurred in the town or in his life especially, seemed to happen in cycles.

"In 1904," Roberson said, "the Colorado River overflowed and filled the Salton basin."

FROM THAT DATE on, the hotel man pointed out, in 1916 the macadam road built at such great expense and anticipated with so much joy by Villagers, was washed out by flood waters from the mountain side.

In 1926 storm waters washed out the railroad from Colton to Whitewater and in 1936 to 1938 other storms devastated the areas around here.

"Civic minded people should get together," advised Roberson, "and take steps to correct this ever-present menace."

HE SAID the roof of Palm Springs are the mountains to the west and he has known four inches of rain to fall in them and then to come cascading down on to the desert. Roberson said he has seen water from Tahquitz canyon spread out for one-half mile where at present two subdivisions are taking place.

He continued by saying among other things that roadways leading into and through the city are inadequate and the sewage disposal plant with the acquisition of the one used by the Army Air

Four Awaiting Day in Court In Zone Case

It was reported this morning that persons involved in violations of the zoning ordinance regarding rentals and others who may face similar charges, are raising a "war-chest" fund to be used in a legal attempt to invalidate the ordinance.

Four Villagers today were awaiting their day in court to answer to charges of violating city ordinance No. 75, following pleas of not guilty before Judge E. E. Theriault.

Ordinance No. 75 prohibits the operation of rooming houses in an R-1 zone.

Under the terms of the measure, if found guilty, they are liable to fines up to $300 or 90 days in jail, or both at the discretion of the court.

ALL FOUR of the Villagers are at liberty under $50 bail. All four entered pleas of not guilty when arrested.

First of the four defendants will face Judge Theriault Dec. 17 in city court. She is Mrs. S. A. Molin and entered her not guilty plea Monday.

Mrs. Molin declined to comment for publication on the case.

OTHERS accused of the same infraction of the law are A. J. Meyer, 312 via del Sol; Grace E. Hubler, 535 North Belardo; and Claude Gottbehuet, 1134 San Jacinto Way.

Complaints against all four were signed by Frank Cutler, head of the Palm Springs Home Owners league.

Meyer is scheduled to face court Jan. 6, Grace Hubler, Jan. 7 and Gottbehuet, Jan. 8.

City Attorney Roy Colgate will prosecute the cases.

BOY, 6, DENIES HE'S DEAD

Headline in N. Y. Herald Tribune. Maybe so, but some kids are terrific liars at that age.

Base will now be adequate when connected with the old city plant.

ROBERSON said, "we are not getting enough for Palm Springs from the county authorities and that instead of looking through a knot-hole in the fence we ought to stand up and look over the top and ask for more."

High School To Broadcast Yule Program

Traditional Event To Go Out on Air On December 19

By CHERIE MASHBURN

Marking the commencement of the weekly broadcasts to be presented from the auditorium of the high school by the students, will be the traditional Christmas program to be given Thursday, December 19. This event is held annually preceding Christmas vacation.

"A Christmas Carol," radio adaptation of Dicken's famous story, will be broadcast by the drama class under Irving Sussman's direction. Over 20 students of the class will participate.

After the broadcasting of the play, Alex Hammond's girls and boys glee clubs will perform, singing carols and other Christmas music.

An evening rebroadcast is to be held the following night in which a transcription of the play plus the school choral groups will be heard.

"Much preparation has been involved in order to present this program," said Mr. Sussman, head of the speech department, yesterday. That 35 scripts of 10 pages each, make up the radio scripts was revealed also.

AMONG PERSONS to perform in this dramatic endeavor are Mr. Sussman, Art Smith, Betty Jo Roth, Vivian Gaudiello, Craig Hammond, Paula Kay Hayward, and Hortensia Ortega.

A few of the musical pieces, of which there are 13, to be sung, are "O Come All Ye Faithful," "Carol to the Russian Children," "Benedictus," and "Deck the Halls," Mr. Hammond said.

'Spiritual Armor' Subject Sunday at Episcopal Church

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, rector, will preach at the Episcopal Church on "Shining Up Our Spiritual Armor."

On Friday and Saturday he will be in his former parish, St. Mary's Laguna Beach, to officiate at the marriage of the daughter of his former junior warden, the distinguished artist, the late William A. Griffith and Mrs. Griffith.

The Guild of St. Paul in the Desert will have the last meeting before the holidays on next Tuesday, December 17, at 2:00 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Harrison Leussler, 1285 San Jacinto way. Complete reports will be made of the recent sale.

The Rev. and Mrs. J. Harold Kemmis of London, England, friends of the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, will arrive in the Village on December 21 for a fortnight's stay. He will preach Sunday, Dec. 22 and also on Christmas Day, 11:00 a. m. The rector will officiate and preach at the annual Candlelight Service, Christmas Eve.

The University of California College of Agriculture undertook 839 separate research projects in all parts of the state during the past year.

Mountaineers Get Together, Build Community Hall

IDYLLWILD—When it comes to solving the labor problem in constructing a community hall, residents of this mountain village know the answer.

By common consent they closed down the town today and 100 volunteers poured 125 tons of concrete to form the eight foot walls of the basement of the 40 by 60 foot building. They used 450 sacks of cement and kept five mixers and twenty wheelbarrows in constant use until the job was done. Lem Poates, building supervisor, estimated that the value of the day's labor was equivalent to $1500.

Lunch and dinner were prepared and served to the workers by women of the town.

DRIVE TO RAISE money to pay for materials needed for the building was started just a year ago today and more than $6,000 has been turned into the fund.

The Idyllwild Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the building, has 465 members which is the largest membership of any chamber in Riverside county, including the City of Riverside. It functions as a town hall in this unincorporated village as more than half of its members are not businessmen.

Art Exhibit at Library Dec. 14 First of Season

The Welwood Murray Memorial Library will show for its first art exhibit of the season the work of Helga Dean (Mrs. William D. Dean) of Smoke Tree Ranch, Palm Springs. The pictures will be shown for a month, from December 14 to January 14.

Mrs. Dean has exhibited at the Corcoran Gallery, Washington, D.C.; at the Art Institute and other Chicago galleries; in Madison, Wisconsin and in New York.

Of her training Mrs. Dean says: "I began painting as a child and was fortunate in being allowed to study art early—first at the Chicago Art Institute, then in New York at the Art Students' League. During later years I spent summers in Provincetown, Cape Cod, and at Rocky Neck, Gloucester, Massachusetts. Between these periods I often studied under various teachers both in Chicago and, within late years, at Scripps College with Millard Sheets. At Cape Cod I painted under Charles Hawthorne, the well known portrait painter, at Gloucester with Breckenridge of Pennsylvania Academy. Later in Chicago I tried etching and murals with a French artist."

The next meeting of the Great Books Seminar will be held on December 18 at the Welwood Murray Memorial Library. The topic will be Aristotle's Ethics, book one. Also the plays of Aristophanes, the assignment of last time which was not entirely covered. The public is cordially invited.

Holland Worries About Dog; Sun Find Owner

If Tom Holland of the Palm Springs Department and Hardware Store ever lost any sleep in his life—one English bulldog he found in his store did for more than several days this past week.

WHAT PERTURBED Tom mostly is how people can just walk off and forget in some public place such a fine lady as Mrs. Bulldog, who was found curled up asleep in a corner of his large establishment.

"She is such a thoroughbred," declared Holland, "and I am desirous that its owner find it." That was last Saturday. Tom worried about it over the weekend and Monday he was pressing The Desert Sun to assist in finding the rightful owner. Meanwhile the dog has been reposing at the Palm Springs Veterinary hospital which doubles as a municipal retention spot for lost dogs.

The Desert Sun did find the owner and attempts by long distance telephone to Los Angeles to reach Mrs. John Marye were unsuccessful yesterday and will be continued today.

LITTLE CHATS ON PUBLIC NOTICES

By J. E. POLLARD

IN TIMES OF CRISIS

In times of crisis the lesser must give way to the greater. When a democratic nation is in peril its welfare far outweighs that of the individual citizen, some of whose rights may suffer for the time being.

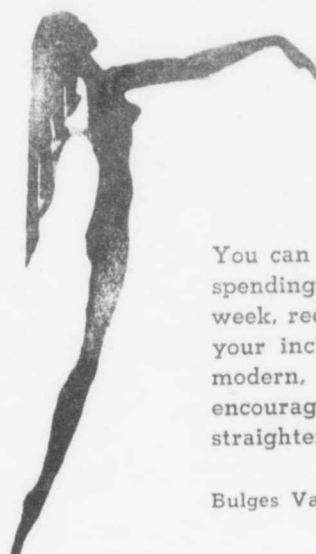

An important case arising under the Espionage Act, passed during World War I, had to do with just such a situation. It went to the U. S. Supreme Court which upheld the law which, it was claimed, violated the Bill of Rights. It was here that Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes laid down the famous rule that such a law could be enforced where "a clear and present danger" existed.

Note, however, that in civil matters even in times of crisis the basic principle underlying Public Notices is observed. Freedom of speech may be less free than ordinarily, the press may find itself somewhat limited, and other restraints may be felt, but the practice of giving due Notice is still observed. This is proof of the basic importance of the Public Notice at all times.

THE NEW JAM session at the Pogo Pogo which will take place again this week on Sunday between two and five in the afternoon received a popular welcome from those attending the first one last Sunday.

There this week were Mr. and Mrs. William Powell who had with them recent desert arrivals, Spencer Tracy and actors' agent, Leo Morrison. Also from the motion picture colony were Mr. and Mrs. Al Jolson, Gladys O'Brien and her famous little daughter, Margaret.

Lone Palm Hotel guests Mr. and Mrs. George Farnham and Mr. and Mrs. I. Farnham who are all from Van Nuys were seen at the Pogo Pogo in a large party of merry makers. There Monday night was Lieutenant Colonel Jack Hardy who was introducing his attractive wife to night life in the Village.

MRS. GLADYS MILLER and Mrs. Hilda Pendry were cohostesses Tuesday noon at a delightful luncheon held at the Palm Springs Tennis Club. Those invited to share in the luncheon and bridge party were Misses Helen Schilling, Lenie Linkletter, Fern Jones, Hilma Cutler, Helen Williams, Florence Lockett, Frances Manington, Ruth Longtry.

H. C. SMITH hosted Mrs. Zeddie Bunker and Frank Adams at the Doll House one evening early this week. Mr. Adams, incidentally, is building one of the particularly beautiful new homes in the Little Tuscany district.

Greeting friends there, when they stopped in on a brief visit back to the desert, were Bob Hull and Paul Benson. Bob Hull, will be remembered as the organist who played at the Rainbow Room during the war. The Doll House turned into a regular "How Are You?" Spot when the two of them entered. Paul Benson is stationed in Virginia with the Army. Cinema and bandleader Phil Harris was nearby as were T. Netcher, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Farnham with Mr. and Mrs. Skinnay Ennis; Clarence Wooley chatting with Bill Kidston; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cordrey, Mr. and Mrs. Al Dorne and Mr. and Mrs. Walter McManus; Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Bailey with the Dexters and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hammond; Bob Hornstein dancing with attractive Phyllis Case of San Francisco.

A MERRY FOURSOME at the El Rancho Room of the Palm House included Mr. and Mrs. Trav Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. William Gargan.

There, after midnight, proving that smart spot proprietors like a moment away from business as well as others, were John Brooks and John Farrell of the Pogo Pogo chatting over doings with Gene Hughes and Vic Sudaya, owner of the El Rancho Room.

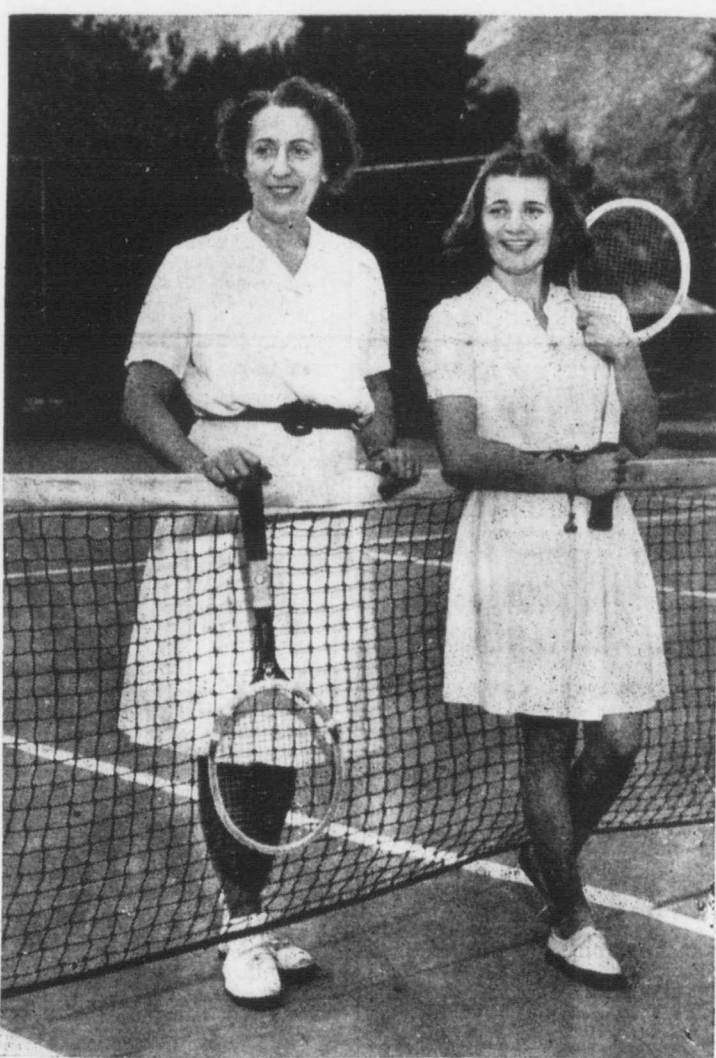

HONEYMOONING in Palm Springs this week at the home of the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Nello Baldocchi, who were married recently in Reno. The bride is the former Beatrice Bohanon of Antioch and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Baldocchi of Antioch and Palm Springs.

The honeymooners spent two weeks at Lake Tahoe and are now visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Baldocchi of 748 Calle de Marcus. They will make their home in Antioch.

WEDDING BELLS rang in the Community church last week-end when Carla Heessen de Burgani became the bride of John Joseph Schneider.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leusser accompanied the couple to the altar. Services were read by Dr. J. R. Macartney.

and Roz Oliver, 253 Mesquite drive the past week was H. H. Irwin of Kansas City, Mo. He is the national extension director for the V.F.W. and has just returned from a tour of the east coast. From here he went to Los Angeles to attend a meeting of west coast delegates.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver will leave later this month to spend their Christmas holidays in Kansas City, guest of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin at their home, White Hall, and will meet their old Kansas City friends there.

THE ORIENT was the destination of the Rev. and Mrs. Donald Irwin who have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Macartney at the Community Church Manse.

They left the Village this week for San Francisco where they will board ship for the east with more than 900 other missionaries returning to their posts to rebuild the missions destroyed in the war.

The missionaries sailing to the Orient are from many varied mission boards but their goal is all the same.

HONORED at a dinner party Sunday night, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hicks celebrated their second wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Shearer were hosts at the merry affair. The Shearers recently returned from Seattle to their winter home here.

Guests at the dinner party which was held at the Tennis Club, besides the honorees, were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hicks, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Purcell and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haymond.

CHRISTMAS for the C. K. Fultons of Villa Hermosa, will be spent at Coronado with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Brunn of Portland, Ore., who are wintering in the south. They will be joined there by Mrs. J. A. Marshall, Mrs. Fulton's mother, from San Francisco.

Recently Mrs. Fulton's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Marshall of Pleasanton, were their guests here.

MUSIC was the feature of the meeting Wednesday of the Palm Springs Jewish Women's group at the home of Mrs. Stanley Rosin, 358 Van Monte del Norte.

An excellent program was presented. THEOSOPHY will be the subject of a talk to be given a week from today, December 20, at the Association Hall on Pierson boulevard in Desert Hot Springs. Mrs. Theodore Lambert, well known lecturer, will be the speaker. Mrs. Alice Guthrie, in charge, announced.

The Borneo headhunters are reported to be dying off. In these days it is hard to get ahead anywhere.

Village Market Opens With Big Throng Present

Everything is shipshape at the Village Market, 441 South Palm Canyon drive.

And shipshape is the right word to use for the owner is Herman Reich, formerly a captain in the U.S. Navy during the war and the manager of the grocery department is Edward J. Haddon, commander in the U. S. Navy in the same period.

They were together during the campaign.

There were three formal opening days last week at the new market which is of the latest design and construction.

Main feature of the new enterprise is that it is an entirely self-service food department store. Fixtures are of the latest design and so arranged as to give the customers the greatest convenience in selecting the articles they want.

Parking facilities have been arranged for customers.

Harold D. Jacobs Gives Talk Before Journalism Class

Harold Jacobs, a winter resident of Palm Springs, came to the high school in order to address the journalism class.

He said, "I am glad to see how well this journalism class is doing. As I look back on your past copy I see a little more improvement on each successive release."

Mr. Jacobs, a newspaper man himself since 1908, has edited numerous newspapers and has written many articles and books.

He spoke to the class on the fundamentals of good newspaper writing.

THE JOURNALISM students were not only honored by Mr. Jacobs' visit but they were glad to have the opportunity of hearing comments and helping hints from a professional newspaper man.

Mr. Jacobs seemed glad to give any information he could.

This being a very informal meeting, questions were asked and answered. The whole class thought Mr. Jacobs' talk very interesting and thanked him for coming.

Gym Shorts

Hockey season was officially opened last Wednesday night with the election of team captains and choosing of teams. Four captains were chosen, one from each class:

Next Wednesday the teams are looking forward to some exciting games from these closely matched teams. We have a big turnout this year and the competition for varsity will be closer than ever. Each girl has her heart set on earning as many stars as possible to wear on her letter.

The G.A.A. sweaters have been voted on, so the letter women will be seen soon sporting white cardigans, with a G.A.A. emblem and maybe a letter. If hockey season is as successful as basketball season, maybe there will be a few letters presented at the next spread.

There will be big doings here at school next Saturday. The GAF (Girls Athletic Federation) of which P.S.H.S. is now president, is having a meeting here. There will be plenty for the G.A.F. to do in order to entertain the executive board of five schools.

Now—Dining and Dancing at Mr. Dee's. 9690 for Reservation.

Editorial

A NEW GYMNASIUM

P.S.H.S. has developed to the point where it should be able to take its place among the well-equipped schools of Riverside County league. However, this will be impossible until we have an adequate gymnasium. The need is desperate.

Last year other members of our league refused to play competitive basketball on our outdoor court. They were justified in doing this since the courts are not only slower than indoor ones but dangerous. Very bad abrasions and blisters can be received from the rough surface.

For the last two years we have had to seek the use of a gym "off campus." This year we still don't know if we will have a gym even though we are well in our basketball season. Our first game was played after but one day's practice on an indoor court, while our opponents had three weeks of practice.

The gym is also needed so that a more rounded physical education program may be developed. Gymnastics and boxing for the boys and sports for the girls are much needed additions to the present program. We also need sanitary locker-rooms and showers which are usual equipment in a school gymnasium. The present facilities are "shockingly inadequate" to those who see and know them.

A well-constructed and equipped gymnasium is part of every modern school. We too must have a gymnasium.

—Coni Tilgham.

Dr. Brown Talks To Students at Weekly Assembly

"Accepting and Believing in God," was the subject of the talk that Dr. Arthur I. Brown delivered to the students of the high school in their regular weekly assembly on Thursday.

Dr. Brown, noted evangelist, appeared at the school through the courtesy of Rev. John R. Macartney of the Community church. He was a prominent surgeon before he left that profession to become a lecturer and evangelist. The doctor spoke to the students on accepting God and gave many facts to support his argument, mentioning the universe and the human body as examples for the belief in a superior being. Dr. Brown was accompanied to the school and introduced to the students by Dr. Blackstone, assistant pastor of the Community church.

Students Busy On Advertising For Annual Chia

Students representing the high school are soliciting advertising from the business people. Much advertising has already been sold. There are many stores yet to be contacted but it was announced by the advertising manager of the Chia, Ralph Woodward, that he was well pleased with the result of the advertising campaign's results to date and is confident that a sufficient amount of advertising will be obtained to defray the expense of the annual above the cost charged to the students.

The annual which will consist of one hundred pages will amount to well over the $1,000 mark for engraving and printing. Ads are being solicited early in the year so that the funds will be available to pay for the printing and engraving that must be paid in advance. The students are also charged in advance for their annuals this year. The cost is $2.50 with a student body card and $3.00 without. Mary Mitchell is in charge of annual sales at the school.

Football Awards Presented at ASB Assembly Tuesday

The first open Associated Student Body council meeting was conducted by President Jim Searles in an awards assembly Tuesday December 10.

The varsity awards were presented by Coach Scott Thompson after giving a review of the P.S.H.S. football season. Coach Thompson said, "Our team may not have been champions, but they were a defensive team to be proud of. Our boys were never beaten by more than two touchdowns." Coach Thompson closed by saying "This was a team that I will always remember and be proud of."

THE VARSITY was handicapped by a lack of experienced players at the beginning of the year according to the coach. However, the new boys responded readily, it was stated.

Henry Greeley, student council advisor, presented a cheer leading award to Bonnie Sue Taylor. Dick Hensen, head cheerleader, forfeited the award by resigning in order to support the football team and to play basketball. Dawn Okerlund was not present to receive the other award.

JIM SEARLES announced that a new policy would be followed in the issuing of awards, effective at the beginning of the 1946-47 basketball season and the policy is as follows:

1. Any player who is found guilty of breaking training by the student council will not receive a letter.

2. If he wishes to continue playing, he will be benched for one game with the understanding that he will not receive a letter at the end of that sport.

3. A letter can be revoked by the athletic commissioner for misuse.

4. Friday of each week will be Lettermen's Day. All boys will wear their sweaters on that day.

THE MEMBERS of the team who received varsity letters are: Third year lettermen: co-captains Don Williams and Chuck St. George; Second year lettermen: Jay Holderman, Jim Searles, Ed Wills, Dick Doro, Don McKinney and Jack Weingardner. Seniors who lettered for the first time were Bob Higgins, Bob Hillery, Jerry Hulme, Bob Jones, Don Whitehead, Bob Fern, Tom Griffith, and Alex Duckworth.

Others lettering for the first time were: Humberto Lopez, Walter Bender, Bob Arneson, Gerald D'Ottavio, and Joey Flavin, manager.

Gazoozit

Seven days have passed and simply because seven days is a week it's time for Gazoozit again, so I will come to the aid of my country and perform my duty n' stuff. (All that in one breath.)

Guess what happened. Sally Robinson and Don Williams are now both fancy loose and foot free which means that their famous little twosome has gone with the breeze. Keep thine eyes open for future developments. There's bound to be some, you know.

ON THE STEADY list instead of off are good old raker of cooties (Brush) and Mable Potter and let us hope that they stay there for more than a week or two. We need some more in this great institution of learning. Wally and Mary Katherin have been seen together quite often but we won't say they're going steady because they aren't and that's a good reason, isn't it? Besides that, Wally is getting awfully mad at the student body in general. Whenever he takes a girl out it's rumored right away that he's going steady. What a pity! Sandra and Stone have celebrated their fourth anniversary (fourth week, that is). I've lost count of the weeks with Betty Ann and Mickey. I guess they'll never fall out. There's no signs of it yet anyhow. There's one more new couple going steady but it's a secret so I won't tell. Too short to mention, at any rate. (Hint! Hint!)

Wednesday night was an important night for exactly twelve girls who pledged themselves into the Potawatami Sorority. There's another name too—the I.V.S. but you'll have to guess if you want to know what it stands for. The meeting took place at Jeanette's house, of course and the members to this great organization (just ask the boys if it's great. They'll tell you) are Jeanette, Jo, Virginia, Betty Ann, Candi, Jaffey, Bonnie Sue, Bonnie Lou, Beeton, Shirley Renville and someone else but a newspaper writer should avoid the personal pronoun so use your imagination ladies and gentlemen.

POOR FUNGUS! He still doesn't seem to appreciate the name we have so aptly provided him. My heart bleeds for the poor dear. Maybe we could think of an even better name for him—something that would correspond with his anti-ask-girls-out camouflage. (Please turn to Page 13) paign perhaps. Of course he is not alone in his belief. So now we have the males versus the I.V.S. May the best side win and remember all is well in love and war and this, dear fellows just ain't love.

What is this most tragic of all dramas? It looks like Beeton and Stinson's heated arguments are about at the boiling point now. Simmer! Simmer! It's those cute little remarks of Stinson's.

NOW IS A FINE TIME to talk about Friday night and Barbara Jones party. Present were Chuck and Sandra, Don DuBose and Elanne, Ann Wells and Jack Pendrey, Jill and Barry, Don Miller and Barbara Jones, Adele Woods and Ralph Woodward, Mable Potter and Noel Brush, Dixie Smith and Van (Wally).

Ah, it was really a party, smartly clear down to a Scavenger Hunt. The winners of this rare hunt were Chuck and Sandy, and Don and Elanne. Those who came in last of all were Ann and Jack and Jill and Barry but then we have an allowance to make for them. They had to get Killy's grave stone and the mayor's signature. What will their minds create next? The swell food, cake, popcorn, sandwiches, punch and potato chips pulled a quick disappearance act but there's really no trick to it at all. Just open your mouth, chew and swallow.

THEY PLAYED a very interesting game at the party too but I'll be like the fools in the song "My Sister and I!" We don't talk about that. "Oh joy oh rapture unforeseen," need I say more?

They played another joyful little game called "Spoon Dance" invented by Chuck. Very cagey, says Jill.

Don DuBose seems to be terribly fond of "To Each His Own" for some sentimental (?) reason. Hmmm, could be!

On this same Friday night Palm Springs played Coachella in basketball at Coachella and, boy, it was one rough game. Coachella won the B game but we won the A game and that's what matters anyhow. Only three days practice and we won—and our boys really fought. Right while the game was going on the boys and girls had another of their verbal fights with Fungus leading the boys along. Delano and Landry would chip in now and then just to hold their ends up but it really didn't concern Landry anyhow 'cause he and Slocum still drag the ball and chain.

SOME of the I.V.S. gang had a pretty tough time finding the Coachella high school so of course the only thing for them to do was inquire. But what a place they picked. Jeanette got scared first and made her way through the mud and slush running like mad back to Beeton's car where Beet herself sat all safe and sound. Virginia didn't mind tip-toeing around in all that nice wet dirt but she lost her nerve when someone threw a shoe. That was the end. Jo was the only one courageous enough to go through with it and ask directions. Then in a burst of utter unadulterated intelligence a voice boomed out of the dark, "No Savvy." As the canary said to the parrot: "A very cagey deal."

JUDGING from the old proverb of wisdom, "Actions speak louder than words," Stinson and Beeton got back on good terms at least by Monday afternoon. They had an audience too but it was even better than a picture show. Sweet little nothings n' stuff.

Did you see the cute little patch in Fungus' Sunday best Levi's? He's proud of that.

Speaking of clothing, Bill Lawrence ought to keep his hands out of other peoples pockets. Ask Morrie Aitken 'cause he knows.

A HAY RIDE was sponsored by the Community church Saturday for the kids. Jim and Nancy, Mary Katherine and Wally, Shorty and Elanne, Mable and Noel, Coni and Conrak, Jaikie and Bob Higgins, Donnella and Duane, Walter and Betty Jo, Pat Fowler, Hazel, Barbara Jones, Adele, and Dixie were all atop the hay in fine style. That's the life!

That wasn't all we have down for Saturday night. The great Dart threw another one of his famed sessions. Keeping the session in session were, Candi and Hoover, Fern, Carey and Jeanette and lots of alumni.

I sincerely hope that no one made Dart burn his fried eggs this time if he tried any. Perhaps it would be even more wise to hope that he didn't fry any eggs because if he didn't fry any eggs it would be something like an impossibility for him to burn his fried eggs. Thud!

ON THE SAME SATURDAY some of the Kiddies (youthful goats again) spent the evening in the bowling alley. So there were, Barbara Beeton, Virginia Miller, Bonnie Sue Taylor, Jo Wilkes, Marlene Knower, Mary Louise Klug, and others. Who should pop in on Jo all of a sudden and after a year of absence but good old ever smiling (plug) Paul Nordin. We weren't glad to see him or anything like that. Oh no! Frank, Morty, and Dick Mosely were bowling too. Such experts! The faces (and also the bodies) of Paul Benson and Tommy Peterson appeared before us over the weekend after a long absence. Home from the institutions of higher education for short breathing spells were Carey, Jarvis Earl and some more of them.

Well, all good things must come to an end. Maybe that doesn't apply very well here but my eye lids are drooping so that's all for now.

Too many boxers keep late hours, says a trainer. It's a fine thing when they can't even hit the hay.

Varsity Gridders Guests of Honor At Turkey Banquet

Last week the varsity football team was given a turkey dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Truex. This dinner was sponsored by the mothers whose sons were on the team.

The banquet was very well attended, with thirty-four participants, including Dr. E. E. Oertel, Coach Thompson, Mr. Greeley, Mr. Weeks, Mr. Summers, and Mr. Bell.

A GREAT DEAL of credit is owed to the eight hostesses who prepared the banquet for the varsity team. The mothers were: F. Doro, Mrs. W. R. Hillery, Mrs. B. F. Jones, Mrs. B. Miller, Mrs. O. S. McKinney, Mrs. H. O. Truex, Mrs. L. Weingartner, and Mrs. A. E. Willis.

The dinner was served in buffet style. The decorations on the three large tables were done in maroon and white. These decorations were very clever and most outstanding. As a center piece there were large bouquets of flowers and on a background of white the name of Indians was spelled out with red berries. There were also small tepees with miniature squaws added to complete the effect.

THE MOTHERS prepared all the table arrangements and the food. After the meal the varsity team was entertained by motion pictures of sports.

Test Times Are Hard Times at The High School

By JO EISHENBAUM

This week being the end of the second marking period, both the students and teachers at Palm Springs high school are beating their brains out over grades. Last week the worries were over the tests, and if you were a member of the high school gang your ears might lend themselves to something like this:

"Hey, Jackie, are you getting a new dress for the Christmas dance?"

"I don't know Mary, but not unless I get good grades. It's a tough life."

Or if you're a parent of one of these bright offsprings you may get this kind of line:

"Listen, Mom and Dad, I know you expect good grades, but (that familiar 'but') it was a pretty hard test."

If that doesn't break their hearts this sob story should:

"Gee, I don't think the teacher likes me very well."

But all in all we students (and we use the word students loosely) aren't complaining because we know each marking period brings us closer to the next and now with two down there aren't many to go until summer vacation.

So the work goes on and on and the students labor away. The only difference between us and paid laborers is that we can't strike.

Community Hospital Notes

By BLANCHE TURONNET

Palm Springs' population has been increased by three new citizens this past week, with three darling babies born at the hospital. A girl to Mr. and Mrs. John Green, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Curtis are the proud parents of a boy, Hugh, and last but not least, a baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Robson. They are the delight of the staff and visitors.

Speaking of visitors, when I was going past the kitchen, on my weekly visit to the hospital, I couldn't resist peeking in, it smelled so appetizing, and when I saw the luscious food I wanted to stay and have a tray. This food is prepared by Mrs. Veta Melrose, head cook, Mrs. Dorothy Renville, second cook, and Mrs. Nellie Smith, assistant. They have been with the hospital since it opened last March, through the summer heat and all, doing an excellent job.

The board of directors held their regular monthly meeting Thursday. When reports were given by the different committee chairmen, these reports showed that each member is working at top speed, to keep the hospital running smoothly and adequately.

The patients at the hospital the past week were:

Medical care: Mrs. Margaret Wilson, Mrs. Clara Oboler, Mrs. Dora Ossman, Mrs. Helen Fisher, Mrs. Fannie Gholstin, Willard Clarkson, W. J. Yantko, Tom Beebe.

Surgical care: John D. Carlisle, Gary Burch, Brenda Burch, Mrs. Joyce Burch, Mrs. Eva Zouganides, Joseph Somers, James Redfield.

Obstetrical care: Mrs. Clifford Robson, girl; Mrs. John Green, girl.

Hope you have seen our hospital pick-up car with its new

Report Progress In Salvation Army Local Campaign

Progress in the local Salvation Army fund campaign was reported as satisfactory when the local sponsoring committee met with Chairman Raymond Cree and Capt. James S. Berry, southern California public relations director, and Envoy D. Tracy, field representative, at the Village Coffee shop.

Reports on the drive featured the meeting. Fred Ingram, treasurer, reported that contributions were coming in satisfactorily and said he felt sure that the drive will be completed by the end of the week. Letters of appeal were mailed last week to representative Villagers and the replies have been encouraging, he said.

CHAIRMAN CREE asked that those making contributions make out their checks to the Salvation Army Local Fund and send or take them to the Bank of America.

Members of the local committee are Raymond Cree, chairman, Fred Ingram, treasurer; Thomas Holland, Mrs. Nellie Coffman, Postmaster R. M. Gorham and R. F. Graettinger.

coat of paint (and did it need it), white with red lettering. I have already had three people say they did not know there was a hospital in Palm Springs until they saw that car. So now we can impress on our visitors as well as the Villagers, that we have a very fine hospital that every Villager should be proud of.

At the La Paz

La Paz Guest Ranch, which has been mentioned in metropolitan newspapers and in columns all over the country more than most places in this locality, again will be spread in Southern California publications. Through the promotion of the new picture "The Yearling," being released this month through M.G.M. studios, a contest is to be held for amateur photographers and one of the major prizes to be won by the lucky "lens clicker" will be a weekend stay at beautiful La Paz Guest Ranch.

The contest will open Dec. 28th on the grounds of Carthay Circle theatre for the camera artists to photograph Claude Jarman, young new screen find, who plays the lead in the forthcoming motion picture. Playing with the youngster is Gregory Peck and Jane Wyman. The amateur photographers will take various shots of the young star, and the pictures will be judged late in January so that the winner will be at La Paz on February 15th.

"THE YEARLING" is M.G.M.'s noteworthy picture of the year and is being released this month to compete as the best work of that studio and is intended for consideration in the Academy Award class.

More than 3,000 major drug stores in the metropolitan area will have window stickers telling of the contest and announcing the fine trip to Palm Springs as the prize.

Returning to La Paz for another visit, the first this season, is M. A. Berlin, of Chicago, who is in the west on a business trip and stopping for a little desert sunshine before returning east for the holidays. Last spring Mr. and Mrs. Berlin visited La Paz, as did their son, Arnold Berlin who was serving in the navy at the time.

LA PAZ always has been a popular spot for honeymooners, and this week a wedding is to take place in the lobby with a reception to follow in the dining room immediately afterward. A large wedding cake will be cut by the bride and bridegroom and shared with their friends.

Palm Springs Women's club held its Christmas luncheon and bridge party in La Paz on Wednesday, Dec. 18th. A group of 50 guests will assemble for luncheon and later in the lobby to play bridge.

Junior High TATTLE-TALE

Perched on a small chair with a big table in front of her and about ten eager kids all yelling at her, was Mrs. Marian Bell, popular teacher at N.C.C.

These eager students were all members of Mrs. Bell's journalism class. But journalism is not the only subject she has to offer. Besides being a 4-2 homeroom teacher, she teaches music appreciation, dramatics and English.

IN REPLY to the question "Where were you born?" Mrs. Bell said with a little laugh "Oh, in a little jerk town in South Dakota." I didn't quite catch the name but it sounded something like Cyanide. I guess it won't matter anyway.

Mrs. Bell's first teaching job was in 1941 at La Clase, a former private school in Palm Springs. She is very fond of music and has a vast collection of records which she is kind enough to loan to our music appreciation class.

SHE IS A GRADUATE of USC and said that she thinks USC played a much better game than UCLA at their recent game at Los Angeles.

And just in case anyone is interested, Mrs. Bell would love a Buick convertible for Christmas.

ABOUT SIX WEEKS AGO a representative from a Los Angeles photographic studio N.M.C. and took a picture of every student present that day. We received these portraits last week. There were six small photos and one enlargement. Many turned out fine and some of the students are using them for Christmas presents.

Cathedral City Woman's Club To Stage Bazaar, Show

Tomorrow will be a big day in Cathedral City. It is the day of the Christmas Bazaar and Doll Show at the Town Hall, from 3 p. m. until 10 p. m.

Mrs. Edith Colglazier, whose hobby has been dolls for years, has loaned her antique dolls and fifteen character dolls which she especially made, to the show.

Members of the Cathedral City Woman's Club, who are sponsoring the show, anticipate a large turnout for the bazaar and Doll Show.

BEN SCOTT and Kathryn Potter delighted the Woman's Club with an offer to put on an evening fashion show for the Bazaar. Mrs. Esther Renwick, in the absence of Mrs. Scott, will be in charge for the Scott's Sportswear exhibit and Kathryn's Dress Shop will show evening dresses of Kathryn's own design.

Raymond Hatton of movie fame who has bought a 42-acre ranch opposite the Wonder Date Ranch and is contributing much to the interest at local meetings, will be the auctioneer.

DATE GROWERS from the entire Indio and Palm Springs district have contributed many pounds of dates which have been put up in Christmas gift boxes. The merchants of Indio and Cathedral City have donated gifts for the children's fishpond, and last but not least, additional gifts have been given, first by Kopp's Drug Store, ten gallons of gas from the Chevron Station, some pottery from the Peter Pan Pantry, a shirt from Fred Fulton's. It seems that this Christmas Bazaar Doll Show and Fashion Show was just the opportunity all these people have been waiting for to show their good spirit and Christmas cheer and help this little community improve their Town Hall which has become the center for local activities.

Cathedral City Pastor, 71, Still An Active Golfer

John C. Abels, pastor of the Community church at Cathedral City, celebrated his 71st birthday Tuesday by playing nine holes of golf on the O'Donnell golf course. He played the last five in par, barely missing one under on the eighth.

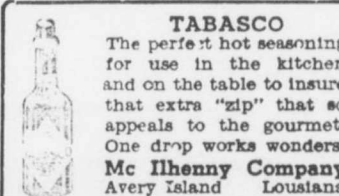

Rev. Abels was city champion in Highpoint, North Carolina, in 1932. He won in a field of more than 100, most of them several years younger than he was at the time.

And 36 years ago, he was well known in Colombo, Ceylon, golf circles for his play.

Humanity is a duty made known and enjoined by revelation, and ever keeping pace with the progress of Christianity.

Christmas Shoot Scheduled Sunday By Village Group

Annual Christmas turkey shoot of the Palm Springs Pistol and Rifle club will be held Sunday, Dec. 15, it was announced today. Turkeys and chickens will be the prizes and, as usual several birds will be put up in each shoot.

All shooting will be from a prone position with sandbag or log rest. The range will be 100 yards and the winners will be determined by the smallest group of three shots.

Everyone will have an equal chance to win under the plan of awarding places.

There will be guns and ammunition available at the range and .22 and .30 caliber events will be held alternately.

The events will start at 9:30 a.m. To get there, Secretary W. James said, turn off the old highway at Araby Point and go to the rifle range at the old gravel pit.

Desert Museum Notes

MRS. HOOD TO SPEAK. In response to many requests, Mrs. Mary Hood of Los Angeles, vice-president of that chapter of the Audubon society and well-known naturalist, will give her second talk for the season on this Saturday night, December 14, at 8 p.m. (Sun Time) in the El Paseo Theatre. Her talk two months ago, on Life Zones, met with such favorable comment that she returns to speak on "How Plants and Animals Protect Themselves," showing more of her superb Kodachrome slides to illustrate her talk.

SNOW CREEK FALLS GOAL. The museum-conducted hike this Saturday December 14, will be an all-day one, leaving the museum at 9:00 a.m. (Sun Time) and returning by 4:00. Bring your lunch, if you plan to participate in the walk, which will involve about 5 miles round-trip of hiking, only a mile of which is up a fairly steep trail. If you have no car, come anyway as there's always extra car space. This trip up the Falls creek branch of Snow creek, on the north face of mighty San Jacinto, sheerest mountain face in America, will take you to the very top of the highest falls in Southern California. It tumbles down an upper drop of nearly 200 feet, and then makes two more 100 foot drops before ending in a big pool in the bottom of a steep-walled canyon.

BATTLE FOR NEW BRITAIN. The war film for this Friday, December 13, is entitled "Attack, the Battle for New Britain," and will be shown at 8:00 p.m. (Sun Time) in the Fiesta House of the Desert Inn (held here because of a council meeting in the El Paseo theatre.) Next Friday, December 20, will be "The Battle of San Pietro," academy award documentary on the Italian campaign.

ROADRUNNER VS. RATTLESNAKE. Natural history films to be shown Tuesday, December 17, at 8:00 p.m. in the El Paseo theatre are "Vanishing Herds," about extinct animals and those that are in danger of disappearing, and "Roadrunner versus Rattlesnake," the famous film showing this desert bird attacking and killing a rattlesnake. This last film is an excerpt from the feature-length motion picture entitled "The Adventures of Chico."

MINERALS SHOWN. With the return of the fluorescent lamp by Dr. William Colburn, who kindly lends it to the museum each season, a small exhibit of fluorescent minerals is now on display in the little store room off the main exhibit room. If you wish to see these, which of course must be viewed in total darkness, simply ask whoever is in charge at that time to show them to you.

RADIO SERIES. As a regular offerings of the Desert Museum, the series of informal radio chats over the local station KCMJ continues twice each week at 5:45 (Sun Time) on Wednesdays and Sundays. The series is entitled "From Palms to Pines" and spotlights interviews with guest speakers and short talks on desert lore.

THREE NEW BOOKS ADDED. Additions to the museum reference library last week included the just-published book on the mountain lion called "The Puma—Mysterious American Cat," as well as two technical volumes: "Botanical features of the Algerian Sahara" and "Features of the Vegetation of the More Arid Portions of Southern Africa." All of the museum's books are available to the public for use in the museum room, but cannot be withdrawn.

Peasant Shop Opened Today

Margaret W. Didricksen today opened the Peasant Shop at 324 North Palm Canyon drive, featuring peasant clothes and shoes. "I'm not superstitious," said referring to the opening date, Friday, the 13th.

She is well known in business circles here having been in the real estate business here for some time.

I believe from my heart that the cause which binds together my peoples and our gallant and faithful allies is the cause of Christian civilization.

—King George VI of England.

THAT NEW CAR—The patience of Harry Mustascio was rewarded when he waited for months until Snow and Littleton opened their new DeSoto and Plymouth show room at 682 South Palm Canyon drive, and took delivery of the first DeSoto automobile. Automobile man Henry Snow on the left thanking Mustascio for the business, who in turn does a bit of congratulating himself.

Harry Mustascio Gets First Auto From New Agency

Harry Mustascio, 147 Chino drive and well known in the Village was the first to purchase a new DeSoto sedan from Snow and Littleton, new DeSoto and Plymouth dealers in Palm Springs.

Early last spring, when Mustascio learned that the new agency would be established here, he placed his order despite the fact that it still had to build its show room, obtain franchise from the Chrysler factory, and obtain other licenses from the city and county. Mustascio was awarded for his patience and faith in the new concern when he took delivery of his new automobile.

The new automobile dealership is located at 682 south Palm Canyon drive in the old Palm Springs Building Supply quarters. The partnership consists of Henry Snow and John Littleton. During the war years Snow worked for the telephone company as a repairman. While waiting for the final touches to the show room to be completed Snow worked with the local telephone company. He is a World War I veteran, native of Virginia but since his discharge from the service has lived in Southern California.

Littleton is a native Californian,

New Real Estate Firm Opens Here

Helen MacCloon and Katherine Johnson, formerly associated with the late Winifred Parsons, have recently announced the launching of a new firm, now as The Village Realty.

The office of the firm, located several blocks north of the main business center of town, at 1490 North Palm Canyon drive, affords ample parking space for clients.

Because of their long association with the Parson's office, Miss MacCloon and Mrs. Johnson, are in a position to be of service to former clients, and every effort will be made to provide the same personalized service, which was so much a feature of that office.

born in San Bernardino 25 years ago and is the brother-in-law of his partner. It is the first business venture for Littleton in Palm Springs.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

A Grand American Tradition

The Cuppers had a grand old family reunion last week—for the first time since the war.

Big and little Cuppers came, by car and train, from as far west as Nebraska and as far east as Vermont. They crowded Dee and Jane's house, set up quarters in the barns, or stopped with neighbors—and a jollier gathering you couldn't have imagined!

I was asked to their final Saturday night supper, when they sang old songs, drank beer and cider, reminisced. Dark Cuppers and blonde ones—Vermont accents and Alabama drawls—doctors and farmers... all with their differences of taste and politics, yet as close and harmonious in spirit as a group could be.

From where I sit, it's a great American tradition—not just family reunions, but the ability to get along as one harmonious family, regardless of differences of taste—whether it's taste for politics or farming, beer or cider.

Business Women Plan Two Events For Coming Week

Palm Springs Business Women's Club plans two big events next week — a Christmas party Tuesday night and a regular meeting Wednesday at the Village Coffee Shop.

The Christmas party Tuesday night for members and their guests will be held at the Colonial House starting at 8 p. m.

Wednesday morning at 8 a. m. the regular business meeting of the club will be held at the Village Coffee Shop. This meeting will also be in the nature of a Christmas meeting with small gifts being exchanged between members.

Richard Hunton will favor the group with vocal solos.

The Navy estimated that the Women's Reserve replaced more than 50,000 men for sea duty in World War II, enough to man a major task force.

Little Movie Star Will Always Have Special Liking for Desert as Result Of Army Incident Four Years Ago

This desert locality probably always will hold a very special place in the heart of a little seven-year-old movie star.

While vacationing in Palm Springs at the age of three, Carole Keppler received a most flattering invitation. A telephone call from Camp Young, the largest desert training center where hundreds of thousands of army men were stationed, told that the commanding officer was extending a special invitation to Carole to appear that afternoon at the camp.

IT SEEMS even at that early age the youngster was filled with showmanship and had a knack for telling stories. Her unique and baby voiced way of telling risque ones (although she didn't know their meaning) was a sensation whenever she appeared.

However, the invitation came just as little Carole was about to take her nap. Her parents, the G. G. Kepplers of Los Angeles, felt their child's rest was more important than traveling to the camp. But the famous general, always ready with the right strategy, sent in a specially built car that contained a bed. So Carole didn't give up her nap, nor did she disappoint the huge uniformed audience.

IT WAS WHILE appearing at this camp that a talent scout saw the child, and she now is well on her way to stardom. Her first screen appearance was in Dorian Gray for M.G.M. Just recently she completed a fine part in "Her Sister's Secret" soon to be released.

Just before coming to La Quinta hotel this month, she was tested and given a part in Jean Tierne's forthcoming picture now in the shooting at Twentieth Century Fox. However, age can play tricks in the life of a star — even though she is very young. Just before she was to appear in front of the cameras, little Carole lost her two front teeth! It spelled finis to that picture, but she soon will be able to smile through a second set of teeth.

PROVING her great ability for quick learning, Carole was given her first swimming lesson at La Quinta by that hotel's swimming coach, Bill Cupples. The following afternoon while watching a big water show being staged there by L.A.A.C. aquatic stars, the young star volunteered to show her swimming ability. After being introduced before a sizable group of spectators, the youngster with all the poise in the world trimmed across the steps and swam almost down the pool. And that was after ONE lesson.

HER FAVORITE SPOT—Carole Keppler, child movie star, who holds the desert as her favorite spot as a result of an incident four years ago.

Papa Honored

Shower Staged Here
For Prospective Dad

Something new in the way of showers was staged Wednesday night in the Village when the papa was the recipient of a shower.

The home of George Dennis, Ramon road, was the scene of the affair and John Holditch of the Palm Springs Water company, who is to become a daddy soon, was the honored guest.

It seems that recently Mrs. Dennis honored Mrs. Holditch at a stork shower so her husband thought it might be well to honor the prospective father. As a result, Mr. Holditch was the blushing recipient of many gifts at the shower Wednesday night at the Dennis home.

Postponed Session Of Board Scheduled For This Afternoon

City council was scheduled to meet in postponed session at 4 p. m. today to consider recommendations decided upon at last Friday night's housing committee meeting and to attend other routine business. The meeting, originally called for Wednesday night, was adjourned until this afternoon.

Councilmen E. F. Martell and Maurice McCann met with the city housing authority, headed by Barney Hinkle, last Friday night to discuss housing problems. Beside the two councilmen and Mr. Hinkle, Mayor C. A. Hyde, City Attorney Roy W. Colegate, City Manager W. E. Alworth, Phil Delano, G. K. Sanborn, Planning Engineer Harry Birgh and D. W. Dunsforth, were present.

CHAIRMAN of the housing authority Hinkle reviewed the need for adequate housing facilities here and advocated a request to the federal government for approximately 20 buildings on the Torney site, to be removed to city owned land near the Field Club. He also urged an investigation into the possibility of state funds to aid in financing the plan.

CONSIDERATION of the request was promised by council members present at this afternoon's meeting of the council. Airports matters may also be discussed this afternoon, along with other pending city matters.

By scrapping ships not slated for the active fleet, the Navy would realize less than one percent of their original cost. Instead, the Navy will preserve 2200 ships in two inactive fleets for 20 years at approximately the same cost as their scrap value.

What Goes On at Rancho Mirage

All property owners of Rancho Mirage are invited to meet with those of Palm Village, Thunderbird, Cathedral City, Araby, Smoke Tree, Palm Springs and intervening places with the three state high commissioners and the heads of the Coachella Valley Flood Control district at ten o'clock, regular time, at the Cathedral City Town Hall, Saturday Dec. 14th. At this time the realignment of state highway 111 and local flood control problems will be talked over.

Speaking of invitations, Ron Button and Dave Culver, developers of Rancho Mirage, along with the Community Property Owners association are going to go the American Legion post one better by throwing a grand outdoor party in Magnesia canyon on Dec. 28.

SOME SAY that the Legion party can't be beaten but we wish to reserve judgment 'till afterward. Harry Scott of Los Angeles, who is a great connoisseur as well as connoisseur of outdoor cooery, will personally supervise every drop of food and sauces that will be offered. Anyway you will have a chance to savor sauces and stuff that has had the movie colony drooling time and again.

A GOOD SIGN that Henry Gogerty is planning to open his Mirage Airport apartments on schedule is that they are now getting decorative plants to go in the rooms themselves so really the painters must be done. Hank has done a swell job and we only hope that we can have a free try at those innerspring mattresses some of these times when crowded out of our own home by weekenders.

VISITING for a few days: Mrs. Earl Stooks and Mrs. Floyd Rister in the Ron Button home. Back for a while: Johnny Wharburton causing Ruth to smile no end. Jock, the big Airdales and the two Persian cats are spending a few days at Dr. McRory's so it must mean that Claire Leahy is off to Los Angeles for a while. Helen Reichel says that Bill had to go to Oakland to quell that strike so she put him on the plane but was so lonesome a day later that she left for there too. We shall see them again soon.

Well, I'll be seeing you at the tea given by artist Carl Hoerman Sunday Dec. 15th, when he opens his studio for the season. Cheerio, Mates!

Only a foggy driver will drive fast in a fog.

Plan Big Youth Rally Here Next Sunday Evening

A group of young people from the Hollywood Presbyterian church will come to the Community church here for a youth rally. Jim Shaw will be the leader.

A large group of talented young people will be present and all are invited to a fellowship dinner at 5:30 p. m. to be followed by the Youth Rally at 7:30 p. m.

The Rev. James Blackstone will be in general charge of the event.

A good home is not necessarily calm and tranquil. It must be one in which one learns to disagree without being disagreeable.—Mrs. Litta Roberson, Geauga County, Ohio, health education director.

Under present conditions, every economist in the country expects some kind of depression within two to five years, says a University of California faculty members.

Christian Science Topic God, Preserver of Man

"God the Preserver of Man" will be the Sunday Lesson-Sermon subject in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text is from Psalms: "As the mountains from henceforth even for ever."

A Scriptural selection from the Ninety-first Psalm reads, "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the Lord, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God; in him will I trust. . . . He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust; his truth shall be thy shield and buckler. . . . There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways."

"Angels are God's representatives," says Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." She continues, "These upward-soaring beings never lead towards self, sin, or materiality, but guide to the divine Principle of all good, whither every real individuality, image, or likeness of God, gathers. By giving earnest heed to these spiritual guides they tarry with us, and we entertain 'angels unawares.'"

Christmas Plans Set in Motion at Community Church

Plans for the annual Christmas program at the Community church were set in motion this week by Mrs. William Veith, who is chairman for the event.

Date has been set as Sunday, Dec. 22.

The Sunday school program will be held at 9:45 a. m. and the annual Christmas celebration will follow at 11 a. m. with the full choir heard in Yuletide songs. The annual Christmas music festival is scheduled for 4:30 p. m. that day. Rehearsals for this event have been under rehearsal for some time under direction of Holly Lash Visel.

That evening, between 6 and 6:30 o'clock, the two Junior choirs of the church, the Blue Nightingales and the Boys' Choir will be heard over radio station KCMJ. The youngsters are looking forward with great anticipation to their first broadcast.

First event of the Christmas season will be the Christmas dinner to be presented by Community Circle Tuesday, Dec. 17. Mrs. William H. Davis is president of the circle. Reservations may be made by dialing Gordon Nicholson, 6432.

Bible Subjects For Next Week Given Out Today

"Faith in Our Times" will be the subject of a series of Bible lectures broadcast by the Mutual network Tuesday mornings at 7:15 a. m., standard time, 8:15 a. m. Village Time, Dr. J. R. Macartney, pastor of Community church said today.

The program is sponsored by the American Bible society. Mr. Macartney announced the topics for next week in the World Wide Bible reading program as follows:

Monday, Isaiah 1:1-20.
Tuesday, Isaiah, 52:13-53:12.
Wednesday, Jeremiah 1:1-2, 12.
Thursday, Daniel 6.
Friday, Luke, 1:26-56.
Saturday, Matthew 3:1-17.
Sunday, John 3:1-17.

The University of California College of Agriculture undertook 839 separate research projects in all parts of the state during the past year.
